(Special to The Herald)
Ossining, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Five murderers in the early dawn of today were put to death in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison. The wholesale execution was put through in quick time and was without especial incident. One of the men, Lewis Rich, of Montgomery, convicted of the murder of John Barrett, lived in hope in the death house of a reprieve, but none came. ### MRS. MOHR DECLARES HER INNOCENCE

Denies All Knowledge of Alleged Conspiracy Which Caused Death of Her Husband.

(Special to The Herald)
Providence, R. I., Sept. 3.—"I am absolutely innocent," said Mrs. Elizabeth Blair Mohr today after spending the night at her home following her release on $10,000 bail. She absolutely denied all knowledge of the alleged conspiracy that resulted in the murder of her husband and the wounding of his secretary, Miss Emily Darger. It was the first statement made by Mrs. Mohr since her arrest in connection with the murder and her release on bail by Judge Brown of the superior court.

"I knew nothing about the dreadful conspiracy until the detectives told me," she declared. "They shot and killed Dr. Mohr and then tried to frame me up. Yes it was a frame-up, but my lawyers will have to give you all the information."

(Special to The Herald)

Hingham, Mass., Sept. 3.—Police Chief Washington I. James of Hingham shot and killed James Harmon on Lincoln avenue here today after Harmon and his pal, Robert Williams, had beaten the chief nearly to death and escaped from jail leaving the chief locked in their cell.

The chief's shouts were heard by passing carmen and he was liberated and pursued the bandits in an auto. Harmon fired three times at the chief and missed. The chief, though at the point of collapse, fired once and killed Harmon. Then the chief fainted from the beating he had received in the jail. His condition is serious. Williams fled but was captured at the point of a revolver by Patrolman Ira Adams. Harmon and Williams were two of the three bandits who were captured in Quincy Wednesday night after committing a break in Hingham and fleeing in a stolen auto. In court today Williams was sent to Plymouth county jail on the charge of assault with intent to kill.

P. A. C. FAIL TO TRIM YORK BEACH TEAM

Fast Game Ends in Tie Yesterday--Mulholland's Two Bagger Starting the Trouble.

By launching hits after Walter Mulholland had started the ball rolling in the fourth inning of yesterday's game between York Beach and the P. A. C., York Beach earned two runs and tied the game which was thought to be on tea. York Beach also took O'Brien out of the box after he had been touched for five safe hits and put in Lindstrom, who held the home team to one hit.

The game looked like the real thing up to the fourth and every thing was working well. The Champions were playing star ball, not an error being charged against them. Tredlek was the leader with the stick, getting two hits for a total of four out of twice up. McPheters and Newick pulled a good double steal in the first inning for the initial run. Tommie Lynskey made a great catch off Goffing in the fourth and Jesse Howard robbed Thornton in a homer in the fifth. The play made by McPheters to Newick off Stewart in the fourth was also one of the ideal that makes the fans stand up.

The visitors were playing a fine game all the way through, the only error being made by Asa McKenna. Knox, as catcher made a good catch of McPheters' high foul fly in the third.

The Game

1st Inning.—Thornton died to Bill Brackett, Bill running pretty well back out of his position in order to make the catch. Mulholland died to Howard in center. Stewart hit back of second for a single. He stole second. McKenna died to Howard. No runs.

2d Inning.—W. Brackett was out on a foul fly to McKenna at third. W. Brackett grounded out to Thornton at first. McPheters singled to center and stole second. Newick hit to McKenna and was safe at first on his error. McPheters making third. They pulled a double steal. McPheters scoring. Lynskey fanned. One run.

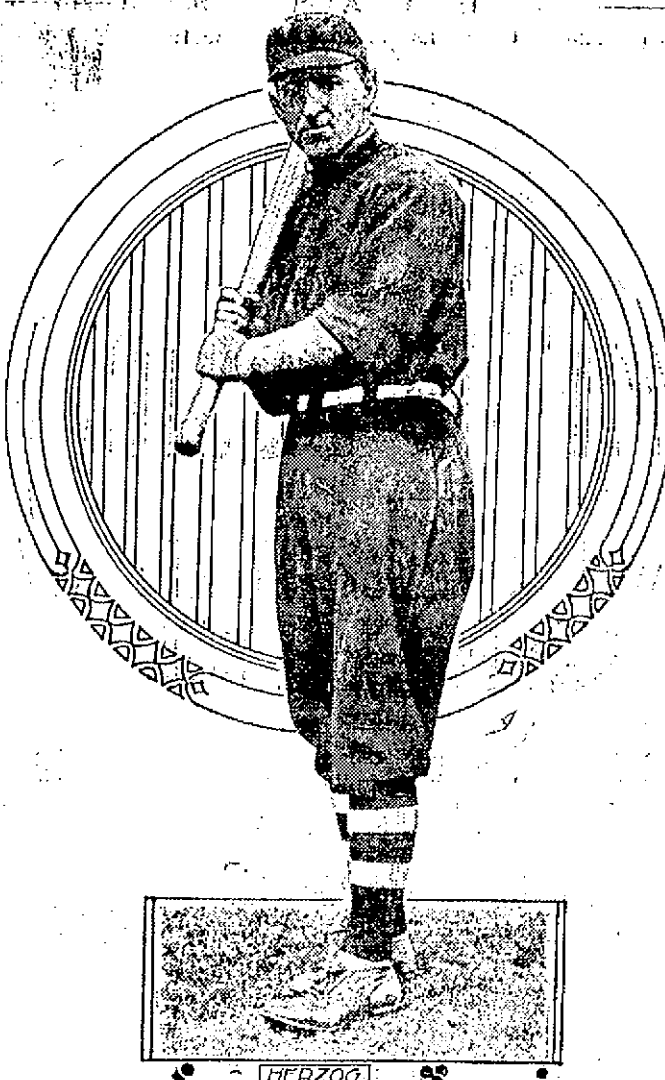

3d Inning.—Knox was out on a grounder to Newick at first. Lindstrom and Goffing walked. No runs.

Tredlek hit to right for three bases. Howard drove a liner to left, scoring Tredlek. Howard was caught between first and second. O'Brien, Thornton and Stewart making the play. Leary drove to left for a single. C. Brackett died out to Goffing. R. Brackett was out at first. McKenna to Thornton. One run.

4th Inning.—Ellis fanned. O'Brien was out at first. C. Brackett to Newick. Thornton hit to C. Brackett for a single, the ball travelling too hard to be fielded. He stole second but was caught off the bag. R. Brackett to W. Brackett after Leary had two strikes on Mulholland. No runs.

(Lindstrom pitching, O'Brien in right) W. Brackett fanned. McPheters was out on a high foul fly captured by Knox. Newick hit a foul fly to McKenna.

MANAGER HERZOG, PLEASED WITH RESULTS, PLANS NEW STRONG TEAM.

HERZOG

Cincinnati, Sept. 3.—Charley Herzog, the leader of the Reds, is as happy as if his team were leading the other seven clubs in the National league by a good margin. "Next season," said Charley recently, "the Reds will make them all sit up and take notice. Had I been fortunate enough to strengthen

BOXING NOTES

McVEA AND WILLS TO MEET
TUESDAY IN BOSTON

Sam McVea and Harry Wills, a brace of giants of the pugilistic world will be the next pair of boxers to show their wares at the Atlas A. A. next Tuesday night. These gigantic athletes are the specimens of physical manhood. In New Orleans Wills is called the tempest of the ring. Up to the time he met Sam Langford he never lost a fight. That was the reason for the so-called "Tempest" next week is another question. McVea like several other fighters who have appeared here has had a great run in luck in Boston. But many think he is due for a set back some time sooner or later and many fans about town feel that the time is at hand for McVea to finish second best in a contest.

Of course, both boxers are confident of winning. Both are in fine physical condition. In view of the importance of the meeting Wills has already installed himself in Boston where he will finish his training for next Tuesday night's contest. In the ring last week Wills made a very good impression with the sports. He appears built right for a fast speedy fighter and acts like a big leaguer from the jump.

With each week the programs at the three A club have become better and better. Last Tuesday night will long be remembered as one of the most eventful ever seen at the club and it is felt in boxing circles that next Tuesday night will result in just as good if not a better program of boxing.

In the semi-final bout Terry Brooks and Charley Byers hitters that drop their men whenever the score will meet. This match alone is creating big interest with the sports as it is sure to result in a slam bang affair from start to finish.

Sunny Stone and Young Fitzsimmons and Duke Fuller and Al Terry will meet in six round preliminary bouts. The Fuller and Terry bout has all Cambridge sports interested in so much as the contest will be for the preliminary colored championship of Cambridge.

WITH THE SPORTS

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, Sept. 3.—Tommy Murphy, the veteran rehsman and owner of trotters and pacers, paid $30,000 last winter for a trotter named Peter Scott. 2:05 1-2 who was sold for $30,000 as a 3-year old in 1913.

"Murphy must be losing his good sense," piped up the "knowing" persons in the harness game. "Peter Scott isn't worth $30,000—nor anything near $30,000. Murphy has been 'trimmed' and trimmed with his eyes open."

Murphy smiled, and said nothing. He just went ahead and entered his new

The records of Packey McFarland and Mike Gibbons tend to show that McFarland has the mightier wallop of the two. Packey has scored 39 knock-outs in 105 battles, while Gibbons has sent over a sleep punch only 20 times in 78 bouts.

Packey and Mike are both 27 years old, but Packey began boxing in 1904 while Mike started four years later. Mike has been boxing continuously for the last 7 years but Packey did a Mike. Batt about two years ago.

THE LAST RUSSIAN FORTRESS FALLING

Grodno on First Line of Defense Tottering as Austro-Germans Continue Attacks.

London, Sept. 2.—The 300,000 Russians that the Germans had "trapped" in East Galicia appear to have eluded them. The fall of Lutsk was inevitable when a large German force appeared on the Stry River, northeast of the fortress. This force, organized under cover of Field Marshal von Mackensen's right, operating against Brest-Litovsk, was exposed by the advance to the Pripiet marshes of the Von Mackensen army, and its purpose fulfilled, it was to work as a great wheel within a Von Mackensen wheel, the main Russian army from north to south, this organization, cooperating with reinforced Austro-German units in Galicia, was to take advantage of the break in the Russian line necessarily following a retreat through the Pripiet marsh region, turn the right flank of the southern Russian army, bend it back on the Lutsk-Dubno-Rovno triangle and destroy it. The evacuation of Lutsk has defeated the first stage of the move. Instead of fastening the defense to the fortress, the Austro-Germans find their opponents presenting a solid front and still eluding them in a retreat to the two remaining fortresses in the triangle, both fifty miles distant. A telling blow on the line near the Dniester end and the bending back of the Russians occupying that part of the front was necessary to the complete success of the Teutonic strategy. The Zlota Lipa positions were forced in conformity with the general plan, but the Russians found an opportunity for a new stand on the Strypa, fifteen miles to the rear. Here they not only organized for a rear-guard action, but developed it into a counter-offensive, which delayed the Austro-Germans two days. Berlin and Vienna say the new front has been broken at Zlota Lipa for a distance of more than twelve miles, but there is no indication that the Russians are doing more than slowly falling back. Possession of Lutsk gives to the German army a stronger hold on the Kiev railway which runs through Rovno and brings to notice again the possibilities of an attempted continuation of the drive to Kiev.

Lutsk was of considerable strength and is located in the province of Volhynia, about sixty miles east of the River Bug on a branch of the main line railway running from southern Russia northward to Brest-Litovsk. It is one of the triangle of fortresses which lie about fifty miles from each other in this region, the other two being Dubno and Rovno. The German advance upon this position was one of the specialties of the war, which leads to the conclusion that the Russians probably dismounted the guns and prepared for retreat long before the Austro-German guns were within range. If this was the case the victory was in a measure an empty one. So far as official reports have indicated it is the most easterly point on Russian territory reached by the Teutonic troops. Its capture marks the fall of the tenth fortress within a month under Austro-German attacks, beginning with the taking of Warsaw on Aug. 5.

The Russians are developing unexpected strength in the north, where, they state, they are not only holding Field Marshal von Hindenburg but have gained a local success near Vilna. Various changes have been made in the Russian command, the most important being the return of General Brusilov to the leadership of the northern army. Grodno, however, while making its last stand, is approaching its fall. The forces of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, have drawn their heavy artillery to the western front of the fortress and began to throw into the stronghold the big shells which no fortification has yet been able to withstand. The position is practically invested, according to the Berlin despatches, and the Germans may be on the verge of trapping and capturing whatever men have been left for its defense. However, do not neglect to recall that the same danger has been imminent before and Grand Duke Nicholas has in each case succeeded in saving most of his men.

Four Turk Transports Sunk

Paris, Sept. 2.—Four Turkish transports have been torpedoed by British submarines.

Announcement to this effect was made here today officially as follows: "In the Dardanelles the last week of August has been calm throughout on the southern front. In the northern zone British troops delivered successful attacks which put them in possession of a hillock to the west of Havak Anafarta, which had been contested keenly.

"To the transport sunk on the 20th of August by one of our aviators in the anchorage of Achashillman it is necessary to add four transports torpedoed by British submarines, two of them at the same point and two others between Gallipoli and Nazari.

"The guns of the battleships have hit several vessels anchored in the straits."

British Gain on Straits

London, Sept. 2.—Further gains for the Allied forces on the Gallipoli peninsula are chronicled in an official report received from General Sir Ian Hamilton, commander-in-chief of the British forces operating against the Turks. The report says:

"Further fighting on the 27th and 28th on the northern section of the line has resulted in the capture of an important tactical point commanding the Thrux Anafarta valley to the east and north and an appreciable gain of the ground occupied by the Australians and New Zealand army corps.

"The fighting was almost entirely hand-to-hand and of a severe character. Very heavy losses were inflicted on the Turks, and three of their machine guns, three trench mortars, 300 rifles, 500 bombs and a large quantity of small arms ammunition were captured by us."

Artillery Actions in West

Paris, Sept. 2.—The French war office this afternoon gave out a statement on the progress of hostilities which reads as follows:

"Fighting with hand grenades occurred in the course of the night in the vicinity of Souchez. There were several artillery engagements in the section of Neuville, near Roye.

"In the Vosges fighting with bombs occurred at Schatzmannelle."

"The following communication was issued by the war office last night:

"Artillery actions have occurred in the section to the north of Arras and in the regions of Roye and Quennewies."

"The enemy has thrown some shells on Soissons and Rheims, and our artillery has directed a very efficacious fire against the enemy trenches on the front of the Aisne and Champagne.

"In the Argonne the Germans during the course of the day bombarded our

ELIHU ROOT REMARKABLE FIGURE AT CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

ELIHU ROOT, PRESIDING AT CONVENTION

Elihu Root was the central figure in the most remarkable gathering held in New York state in years, the convention to revise the constitution of the Empire State. He presided with dignity and in the closing hours of the deliberations of that body spoke for the short ballot. His address, easily the feature of a day crowded with debate, created a decided stir. After Mr. Root had finished delegates crowded up to shake his hand and congratulate him. William B. McDonald, chairman of the Democratic national committee, who was a visitor to the capitol, called Mr. Root's speech "a truly masterful address." In the closing moments of his speech Mr. Root was much affected by emotion, and many of Mr. Root's friends in the convention could not conceal their feelings. General Wadsworth, father of the Junior United States senator, and ex-Attorney General George W. Wickersham both were brushing away tears as Mr. Root concluded. It was not what he said so much as the manner in which he said it—in undertone with a tense note of deep conviction in it. The consensus among the delegates was that such a speech had never been heard before at the capitol.

Italy Punishes Albanians

Rome, Italy, Sept. 2.—Eight Albanians were sentenced to long terms in prison today for having communicated with Austria by carrier pigeons. The men involved are Captain Shagrir Mustapha of the Albanian barque Belin Scutaria, who was sentenced to twenty years, and seven members of his crew condemned to serve ten years each. When the vessel was searched by the Italian authorities there were found a large number of empty petroleum cans and a considerable sum of gold. The men were placed on trial before a naval court martial and it was alleged that the money had been received from Austria in payment for contraband and for intelligence forwarded by carrier pigeons.

The program has been so arranged that even in case of rain the festivities can go on, with the possible exception of some out-door sports, and these could be substituted by other indoor games. The Manager of the Inn, Mr. Marcus H. Hill has arranged for a special dinner to be served at a greatly reduced price, and His Chef, a well-known Swiss caterer, is in charge of it.

Miss Alice Martin of St. Louis, Mo., who has been having classes in English Folk dancing during the summer at Green Acre will give a public exhibition of her pupils' work on the lawn at 8:00 o'clock in the evening. The performers will be dressed in costume, and with a large electric light over the dancers, and other lights around, it will be a very picturesque scene.

Love and Soul

Some sensitive, loving natures seem born with souls, but most children and youth boasts only innocence and joy. Loving comes later—a sweet and fragrant flower of the heart, born in gardens where tears are shed. Its coming seems to change the whole outlook upon life, the whole estimate of self. The birth of love seems also to be the birth of fear—not fear for oneself, but for the one beloved, and fear's shadow seems ever to rest upon the loving heart; fear that they, themselves, do not give love enough; fear that their love is not returned; fear that life is not giving the cherished one all that is desired or needed; fear that some evil may defile the child or youth, the man or woman thus held supremely dear. There is fear that distance may remove them, that suffering or death may lay grim hands upon them, and out of these apprehensions of love the soul is born, the life becomes spiritualized by self-sacrifice, grave to defend, eager to give, patient to endure.—Baltimore Sun.

EARLY MORNING SCARE.

Lincmen Will Hereafter Go Prepared for Any Emergency.

A crew of linemen of the Rockingham County Light and Power Co., while working in the Christian Shore section of the city in the early hours of the morning several days ago, were startled by the cries of "Murder! Murder! Help! Help!" from some unknown frightened female. The call for help came from the direction of Walker street, and were repeated several times. As the loud appeal died away in the stillness of the morning hours, the linemen stopped their work, and resolved to go to the scene of the disturbance. So nothing dead to thought, they picked up a lantern, and each turning himself with a cross arm brace

Profit-Sharing with Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914, we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914, and August 1, 1915, we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-1915 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date. We are, however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars delivered during August, September and October, 1915.

A Silly Attitude.

An astonishing communication recently appeared in a New York newspaper. It was written by a summer resident of one of the most popular summer resorts in New England, whose authorities, owing to a noticeable increase in reckless auto-mobiling, have been considering the revival of what is commonly known as the "speed trap." Everybody knows what this is. By its use the speed at which automobiles are driven through a town is readily ascertained and those who violate the speed regulations can be brought to book. The use of such "traps" was very common a few years ago, but the public gradually came to the conclusion that it would be safe to place automobilists "on their honor" and the operation of the "trap" was suspended in most towns.

To the credit of the great majority of automobilists it may be said that most of the driving through towns is safe and sane, but, unfortunately, there are those who utterly ignore all rules and regulations and fear over the roads at a rate that is dangerous to themselves and everybody else who happens to be in the way.

The town from which the communication referred to was written has suffered from this dangerous practice to such an extent that the residents have become aroused, and are convinced that a remedy of some sort must be applied. The "speed trap" was suggested, and thereupon this man, who evidently thinks that such regulations as the automobilists see fit to make for themselves are good enough, writes to a New York paper advising drivers of motor cars to avoid that place and go where there are no "antiquated methods of increasing the revenues of small towns."

It was a foolish letter to write, but it contained one redeeming feature which the writer did not think of. If it has any effect at all it will be to keep reckless automobilists out of the town, and nothing could better suit the residents and sane users of motor cars, whose constant fear is that they may come to injury or death through the recklessness of others. One resident of the town has already made known through a New York paper that the community is quite ready to forego the "patronage" of highway daredevils, and this information should be of value to the town. Though there are altogether too many of them, reckless automobilists are in the great minority, and any threat on their part to boycott a town cannot fail to be of substantial benefit to the town designated for "punishment" for safeguarding the lives and limbs of its residents and visitors.

It seems hardly likely that if there were a movement on foot to dynamite munition factories and railroads that transport the products it would be advertised with handbills. And yet at such a time as this it is well to exercise proper precautions all along the line. The crank is a dangerous creature, no matter how foolish and futile his schemes may be.

And now there are those who contend that there is danger in the bubble fountain, which in many places has taken the place of the public drinking cup. But to many the greatest danger in the world is that of being scared to death. It is a danger that should be religiously guarded against in this age of fads, frills, "doodled" and froth.

The New York state constitutional convention has provided for raising the pay of legislators from $1,500 to $2,500. But the people will have a say on this matter before it becomes law, and it is quite possible that a majority may decide that improvement in the quality of legislation is more imperative than an increase in salaries.

Boston has an artist who is a work of art himself. He is 92 years old and still goes up into New Hampshire on fishing trips, which he enjoys as well as he has at any time in the last 60 years. It is a great thing to be privileged to grow old in that way.

Perhaps it will yet be proved that there is nothing like war for renewing the youth of men. It is reported that Germany is preparing to take men into its armies up to the age of 54 years.

It hasn't rained every day for forty days, but the dog day season of 1915 brought us about as near to that condition as we ever came.

It has been discovered that there was a time when the use of gun powder in war was considered barbarous. But there has been a great deal of progress, such as it is, since that day.

CURRENT OPINION

Preparation for War Safest Guarantee of Peace for United States.

This war is one of chemistry and mechanics, and the allies are preparing to continue it as long as necessary. It is problematical if they want the United States at war with Germany. Rather, I would say, they would prefer our financial support.

Although I had early military training, I have come back a man of peace. I have no use for the man who wants peace at any price, but I have even less for the so-called patriot who wants war at any cost. I would wish to see the United States so well prepared that no country could afford to wage war with her. We are in no such shape now.

I think Russia will have to reorganize her armies and can hardly be in aggressive shape again before another spring. Russia needs much material, especially manufactured iron. Business is bound to be good in this country with so much exporting in progress and nearly all lines feeling the stimulus.

President Wilson is considered one of the greatest rulers of the world by the people abroad.—By William Ellis Corey, former President of the United States Steel Corporation.

GERMANY WOULD SETTLE CLAIMS ON HAGUE PLAN

Berlin, Sept. 3.—Germany, according to Count von Bernstorff's instructions, offers to submit the claim for compensation arising out of the Lusitania and Arabic cases to The Hague for adjudication.

Although on all the battle fronts sanguinary engagements are in progress, peace talk is in the air.

Cardinal Gibbons has conveyed to President Wilson a message from Pope Benedict regarding peace—a suggestion that the time is now right for proposing the opening between belligerents of discussions having as their purpose the cessation of hostilities.

While neither the Cardinal nor the President has made known the details of the conference at the White House, or disclosed the text of the message from the Pope, the Cardinal admitted that peace was discussed and that he had told the President that the United States had been placed in a very advantageous position to be of service in bringing to an end the conflict, owing to the apparent settlement of the submarine issues between the United States and Germany which had greatly aided the cause of peace.

The Germans and Austrians, according to Berlin and Vienna, are continuing their progress against the Russians on the eastern line, from northwestern Russia through eastern Galicia. On the northern sections of this line except in the regions of Riga, the Russians seemingly are falling back toward the new and less extended front which the Grand Duke Nicholas has assigned to them for a possible stand. Just where this line is has not been made known.

As for days past, artillery engagements and fighting by means of bombs and petards are in progress on the western front and on the Austro-Italian front although they have been on the latter front some infantry engagements at isolated points.

On the Gallipoli peninsula hard fighting is going on between the Turks and the Allies with both sides claiming victories. In the Dardanelles, where there have been no operations for some time, allied mine sweepers have been at work trying to clear the mine Turkish mines, but according to Constantinople they were driven off by Turkish guns.

AFTER 50 YEARS.

Revenue Cutter Woodbury Concludes Her Services as a Coast Guard.

The old cutter Woodbury, well known at this port for leaving Portland for Boston on Saturday ending her fifty years' work in the revenue cutter service along the coast of Maine. The head of Thomas Butler and Company, purchasers of the Woodbury was in Portland yesterday and went thoroughly over the ship. He examined the smaller miscellaneous articles which went with the purchase and will be sold to another Boston concern. He also inspected the engines which it is expected will be installed in another boat. The hull will be used by the company in some of their own coast work.

stream. This would bring a smile on a dead man. He goes on with a remark suggesting that a relief valve be attached to the section hose to free the same from air when the men at the broken have the job under pressure. Whoever heard of such a thing. In the first place where does the air come from, and why the relief valve? Will he kindly inform us where he is at on the hydraulic stuff and relief valve.

The veterans from this city were defeated because there were superior machines and men up against them and the crosswinds, poor work on the pipe line and air in the hose hoses, are not in line as the real cause for not bringing home the bacon. What the hand tub Eureka wants is some new men. A relief valve should be put on "Mechanic" to relieve him of some of the hot air that he carries.

TROUBLE ON MEXICAN BORDER

Mexicans under suspicion are being shot without being questioned. In some of the border villages.

HAVE MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

New York, Sept. 3.—Eight elevators in the North German Lloyd building, 11 Broadway, fell this afternoon, dropping all the way from 3 to 16 floors. Thirty persons were in the cars and not one was injured. The fall of the cars was caused by the blowing out of the engine in the basement, but the air pressure system checked the descent, saving the passengers from injury.

PEOPLES' OPINION

Hot Air and Not in the Suction Hose.

Editor:

In your paper of the second instant, a very amusing communication appears in the defeat of the Veteran Firemen of the hand-lab Eureka at Manchester at the recent New England contest. The writer signs himself "Mechanic". From his knowledge of machinery and the action of water in a suction hose expressed in his communication, the name "Mechanic" is wrongfully applied and he must have learned his trade working on some peanut stand. He defends the phenomenon of the Eureka for the loss of the prize money and blames the defeat to the men on the hoses, who he says were so numerous and strong, and worked with such vigor that the suction hose contracted air, causing the machine to throw a vaporized

There was fighting in the streets of Grodno. The city is now in the hands of the Germans. It is one of the most important strongholds in Western Russia, and is on a railway line to Warsaw.

DID NOT LIKE TO GO TO BED EARLY

Thirteen-Year-Old Boy Picked Up by Manchester

Major Proulx, aged 13, of Biddeford was picked up by the Manchester police. He disappeared on Monday and according to the police his real cause for leaving home and starting out in the world to make his own living, was because his mother sent him to bed too early and for that reason he packed up his suit case Monday night, and slipping away boarded a train for Manchester.

Before leaving, however, the youngster equipped himself with a small amount of money he had saved up in a bank, and then headed for the depot. He arrived in Manchester Tuesday morning and secured a room in an Elm street lodging house, where he was found Wednesday by Sgt. Martin O'Rourke. When located he was penniless. He was perfectly willing to cut his trip short and return to his home in Biddeford.

AMERICANS ARE FOUND RIDDLED WITH BULLETS

Kidnapped and Killed by Mexican Bandits—Thrown Into Dry Lake.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 2.—The bullet-riddled bodies of two Americans who were early today kidnapped and killed by Mexican bandits, about 12 miles north of here were found late today in the bed of a dried lake.

They were Earl Donaldson, a farmer who came here from Fayette, Mo., two weeks ago and an engineer named Smith, engaged in concrete construction work on an irrigation canal. The bodies were brought to Brownsville tonight.

In a fight today between a platoon of United States infantry and sixteen outlaws, one of the Mexicans was killed and the rest of the band put to rout. The fight occurred eleven miles north of here. None of the Americans was hurt.

The band to which was ascribed the burning of a railroad trestle north of here last night, today was held responsible for the kidnapping of three Americans and the burning of a pumping station. A contractor named Dodson managed to escape when the American troops appeared and fired on the Mexicans. The other Americans were carried away by the Mexicans and their fate was not learned until their bodies were found.

Lieut. Faulkner who commanded a detachment searching for outlaw Mexicans, reported that the automobile trucks bearing the Americans were traveling along the old Alamo stage coach road when a band was seen. Called upon to halt, six of the Mexicans showed fight, using an irrigation canal as a trench, while ten fled down the canal. After a short fight five more Mexicans fled, leaving their dead comrade.

The use of DENNISON'S CREPE PAPERS in making holiday gifts is also a correct thing. The colors are beautiful, the paper is tough, the finish is unequalled, the results satisfy.

Look at these embroidery designs, and this crepe paper in our windows.

CITY COUNCIL HELD MEETING

Ordinance Hitting at Jitney Busses and Abatement of Special Sewer Assessment Most Important Features

The most important matters brought up in the meeting of the City Council last evening was the introduction of an ordinance for the regulation of "jitney" busses and the question of the abatement of the special sewer tax as petitioned for by Mrs. Romaine S. Kelley and Mrs. Alice B. Paul. The meeting opened at eight o'clock with all the councilmen present except Councilmen Berry and Johnson.

The reports of the last meeting and special meetings since held were read in part. Councilman Bennett moving, at 8:15, that the reading of the remainder of them be discontinued until the next meeting. This was carried.

Mayor Yeaton read a letter requesting this Mayor and the City Council to join in the forming of an association to be known as The New Hampshire Municipal League, the object of which will be the discussion of city, town and county affairs in an endeavor to co-operate and discover sounder methods of accounting and finance. On motion of Councilman Bennett Mayor Yeaton and Auditor Leighton are to keep in touch with the movement and if it is thought likely to materialize they and two members of the Council appointed by the mayor are to be the representatives of Portsmouth at this first meeting. The motion was passed.

A communication from the Acorn Brass Manufacturing Company for permission to ship to Portsmouth for trial a new light for street purposes was read and ordered placed on the table.

A petition from the New England Telephone and Telegraph company for the placing of poles on Mendum avenue and Park street was read and accepted and permission granted.

Permission to open Russell street for the placing of a sewer was granted to Peter Martineau, the work to be done under the supervision of the Board of Public Works.

Permission was granted the Southern New Hampshire Agricultural Association for holding a band concert on Market Square before leaving for Rockingham Park during the days of the Portsmouth Fair.

The invitation from the Board of Fire Engineers to the Mayor and City Council to participate in the parade of the N. H. Firemen's Relief Association on Sept. 30 was accepted with a vote of thanks on motion of Councilman Bennett.

The report of the Committee on Fire Department was presented by Councilman Duncanson, recommending to transfer of $250.00 to the fire department, the amount to be used during the convention on Sept. 30. The report was accepted on motion by Councilman Sullivan.

Councilman Sullivan asked what the Board of Public Works had to report on the petition of William Pendergast for permission to enter a certain sewer on Stark street. The Mayor stated that the Board of Public Works had reported an investigation and had learned that the property was already connected with a sewer. It further reported that it would cost the city $150. to change the present connection if it was done according to the request of the petitioner. Councilman Sullivan moved that the matter be referred to the finance committee for a report at the next meeting. The motion was passed.

Councilman Smart moved that the sum of $250. be transferred from the treasury to the Fire Department for the parade on Sept. 30 during the convention. The motion was passed.

Councilman Smart presented an ordinance for the regulation of vehicles for the carrying of passengers in the city other than steam and trolley cars. The resolution provides for a bond of $500 to be paid to the city by a company or individual who wishes to operate such a business and the purchasing of a license to cost $5.00 the vehicle to be given a number and the driver to be licensed at an annual fee of $1.00. The resolution was referred to the committee on second readings.

In the petition for the abatement of the special sewer tax for the building of a sewer on Mendum avenue by Mrs. Romaine S. Kelley and Alice B. Paul, permission was granted County Solicitor Hatch to speak. Mr. Hatch stated that the tax was contrary to law in as much as the sewer was built under a resolution passed on Dec. 3, 1913 and was voted at that time to be paid for by the city. He maintained that this was done but that eleven months later the petitioners were taxed in a sum of $542.77. He asked permission for Ex-Mayor Adams to address the Council, which was granted. Judge Abniss stated that he introduced this resolution in Dec. 1913 and that the city built and paid for the sewer. Mr. Hatch later stated that the city would be put to great expense and trouble if the property was sold as the petitioners claim that they were not notified of any special tax, as the law demands in such cases. Councilman Dowdell moved that the matter be referred to the City Solicitor for a report at the next meeting.

Mr. Belden was granted permission to address the Council and stated that the report that it was the practice of the Rockingham Light and Power Company to put lamps smaller than were contracted for in place of broken lamps and leaving them there for long periods of time was untrue. He said that it was necessary at times to replace broken street lamps with smaller ones but that the right lamp was replaced within twenty-four hours. In many cases, Mr. Belden stated that the broken lamps were often replaced with larger lamps that were called for and that it was not their custom to leave any place in darkness.

On motion of Councilman Smart the meeting adjourned to Sept. 9 at 8:00 o'clock.

SERVING JAIL TERM WHEN REPORTED ILL

A warning which the commission intends to act as a deterrent to other persons who would attempt deception in connection with the applications for civil service examinations, was issued today by the civil service commission following the recent conviction of an applicant alleged to have attempted such fraud.

The formal admonition of the commission reads as follows:

"Upon complaint of the United States Civil Service Commission, a former employ of the Washington navy yard has been convicted in the supreme court of the District of Columbia on the charge of perjury and sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary. The execution of the sentence was suspended and the defendant placed on probation.

"The employee referred to failed to report at six consecutive musters and thereby automatically became separated from active service. He later applied to the labor board at the navy yard for re-employment and made affidavit that his absence was due to illness, not the result of immoral or vicious habits or to indulgence in alcoholic stimulants. Appended to the affidavit was the certificate of a local physician setting forth that the applicant for re-employment was under his professional care at the time of the absence and that such absence was due to bona fide illness, as claimed.

"It was found upon inquiry that the applicant was serving a sentence for drunkenness in the Washington jail during the time he claimed to be incapacitated by illness.

"It was submitted by the Civil Service Commission that as the employee's statement was made under oath, it constituted perjury and had violated sections 23 and 125 of the Federal penal code. The defendant pleaded guilty and sentence was imposed as stated.

"As a further punishment the Civil Service Commission has barred the offender from future examinations for the Federal civil service. The physician who was a party to the attempted deception has been notified by the commission that no more medical certificates will be accepted from him in connection with civil service examinations."

SAVED FROM DROWNING OFF WALLIS SANDS George Haynes of Rye Taken from Water by Captain Wells and Coast Guards Yesterday Afternoon.

George Haynes, 63 years old, of Rye, was saved from drowning yesterday by the four of the crew of the Wallis Sands Coast Guard station, when he was caught in the undertow off Concord Point while swimming yesterday afternoon. When taken from the water he was close to the end, as he was very tired and had taken in considerable water. Dr. W. O. Jenkins of Portsmouth responded to a call and was ready at the beach with the motor eleven minutes after being notified, making the trip from this city in an auto.

Mr. Haynes, with his wife, his son, Paul and daughter-in-law, and Harry Hutton, were in swimming off the point. Mr. Haynes, although well along in years, is a strong swimmer, and it was owing to his coolness and presence of mind that he wasn't drowned. At the time that he realized his danger he was some 600 yards from the shore. He was caught in the undertow and called to the shore for help. The sea was running very high at the time and none in the party were able to get to him. His son Paul ran to the life saving station for assistance and Captain Wells and three of the crew went to the rescue with a dory. It meant a long trip over the sands and they had hard work to launch the boat through the surf. Surfman Raymond Hutton, who was on guard at the time, made several unsuccessful attempts to reach Mr. Haynes by swimming to him, but was compelled to give it up.

When the dory reached Mr. Haynes he was in a desperate condition, and was nearing the point of giving up the fight. He was caught by the hand by Surfman John Pridham who was in the bow of the dory and pulled into the boat.

He was taken to his home by Dr. Jenkins in the auto and placed in bed. He told the doctor after he had been made comfortable that although he realized his danger he did not lose consciousness and after a short struggle, gave up the attempt to swim to safety, turned over and tried to remain on the surface by floating.

Mr. Haynes and his family are living at Rye, having purchased the Whitlow Trefethen estate some time ago. He is retired, having removed here from Cambridge, Mass., some eight months ago.

THEATRICAL TOPICS

George Broadhurst, 43rd St. Theatre Success "The Law of the Land" with Adelaide French and all Star Cast Music Hall, Thursday, September 9.

At last we have a genuine New York success coming direct from its season's run at the 43rd St. Theatre, N. Y. City, with a New York company and entire production. "The Law of the Land" which comes to our city the night of Sept. 9 at the Portsmouth theatre.

In "The Law of the Land" Mr. Broadhurst has written a characteristic play on the pattern of his earlier success, "Bought and Paid For," and one which for seven months past in New York has been hardly less fortunate. For once in a while we in Portsmouth are actually to see a successful piece within a few months of the end of its run in New York and with a full New York cast and production. That is to say

"The Law of the Land," unfolds an engrossing dramatic narrative through suspenseful scenes and diversifies them with episodes of amusing humor. On its serious side the play begins with the justifiable murder of a husband by a grossly mistreated wife; follows the gradual fixing of suspicion upon her; tracks her down and finally sets her free. The wit, wisdom and ways of detectives and police generally afford the contrasting humor. A notable cast will bring Adelaide French, Mr. Cones Gwynne, Frank Sterling, A. H. Henderson and D. Primrose. Miss French will be remembered here, having originated the part of "Madame X."

The big N. Y. Production is being carried.

BOSTON LETTER

Boston, Sept. 3.—A suggestion that the registration fee for autos be increased to $100 for cars of no horsepower, with a proportionate fee for cars of lesser power was made by Frederick T. Fuller, a member of the special commission on taxation, which is studying sources of new revenue for the state. Mr. Fuller also proposes methods for obtaining new revenues, a larger revenue for inheritance taxes, now laws to secure revenue from trust estates when they are found to evade the inheritance tax law, and a tax upon the savings department of trust companies. Frank D. Kemp of the

Kemp said his own examination of Massachusetts highways has convinced him that it is the truck rather than the pleasure car which does the most damage, and this opinion has been confirmed by a recent visit to New York state, where trucks, which have been used exclusively by tourists are in excellent condition, while others used by trucks and made of the same material are in terrible shape. All of the members of the Highway commission, he said are agreed that trucks should be required to pay at least $1 per horse power for registration.

A scheme to place Boston merchants in a position to compete with mail-order houses of Chicago for the trade of the northern New England farmer is being developed by Mayor Curley. He believes that the retail merchants of Boston are losing annually several millions of dollars because northern New England is not properly canvassed. The idea of the mayor is to get out a catalog advertising spices in which will be sold by the page to the various retailers of this section where they can give minute classification of their goods. This method of wide distribution of catalogues, the mayor believes to be responsible for a large measure of the success which has attended the great mail-order houses, and to prove this point he states that one or two Boston mercantile houses which send out catalogues widely have developed a large business in northern New England.

STATE ROADS AT THE WHITE MOUNTAINS

New Hampshire highways have withstood the terrible storms of the summer in excellent shape, especially in this true of the state roads in the White Mountain section. The highways through both Crawford and Franconia Notches are in fine condition, and while they have been washed some, repairs have been made at once and the damage obliterated. Lafayette road, constructed during the administration of Governor Floyd, is in the best shape it has been for years, with just one little spot where it is rutted. This road runs from the Profile house to Twin Mountain and was constructed through a veritable wilderness, scarcely a house being on the entire highway, a distance of about 12 miles.

The authorities, both town and state, in the mountains, as well as in other sections of New Hampshire, are to be congratulated on the manner they have looked after the state and town roads, especially on the boulevards. From Nashua to the White Mountains, despite all of the rains, the roads are in the best condition since the construction of state roads began, and prompt and effective work after each big storm has helped to keep them in condition.

While New York and Massachusetts have been battling with the washed road proposition, and many complaints are coming from both states as to highway conditions in their hilly sections, yet as far as New Hampshire is concerned, visiting tourists, especially in the mountain sections, are lavish with their praise of the gratifying conditions of our trunk lines, and they are most agreeably surprised to find them so excellent.—Manchester Mirror.

ONLY FOUR PAIRS SURVIVE IN BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 2.—The fight for the national amateur golf championship which is being waged on the Country club course today narrowed to four pairs. The West has four survivors, two from Chicago and two from Detroit. Three of the big brigade from the East are left, two being from New York state and the other from New Jersey. Nelson Whitney of New Orleans is the only hope of the South.

Robert A. Gardner of Chicago was pitted against his fellow townsman, D. E. Sawyer, who represents Wheaton, Ill., golf club. Max Marston of Springfield, N. J., who toppled Jerome Travers, played Howard Lee of Detroit.

James D. Standish Jr., of Detroit, youthful conqueror of Francis Outmet, the national champion, had Sherrill Sherman of Uleka for his opponent. Whitney met John G. Anderson of Mount Vernon, N. Y. Two rounds of match play each of 18 holes, was the test. A place in the semi-finals tomorrow was the immediate prize.

MRS. MOHR HELD FOR KILLING OF HUSBAND

Providence, Sept. 2.—Mrs. Elizabeth Mohr, widow of Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, the Providence physician who died yesterday as the result of the mysterious automobile shooting at Nagatt, Tuesday night, is being held without bail, and three men, George W. Heals, the doctor's chauffeur; Victor C. Brown, a former chauffeur; and Henry Spellman, Brown's half-brother, all colored, are held on death charges.

Mrs. Mohr and the three men were taken to Warren, the county seat of Bristol county, and arraigned before Judge Frank Hamill. The woman was charged with inciting to murder.

The three male prisoners were charged with murder. All four were held without bail. They were locked up at Warren pending a hearing set for Sept. 16. The prisoners pleaded not guilty.

Counsel sought the release of Mrs. Mohr on bail. This was refused on the ground that the district court had no authority to accept bail on the charge made. Later it was agreed that the prisoner should be taken before Judge George Brown in the superior court at Providence, who would be asked to entertain an application for bail. The party returned to Providence.

Mrs. Mohr's arrest came this morning at 6:45 as the result of alleged written confessions by Spellman, Brown and Heals, in which, the police say, they charge she promised two of them $2000 each and the third $1000 to kill the doctor and provided a motorcycle to aid them in committing the crime.

Warned by Mrs. Mohr.
Before the party left for arraignment the police made public the following letter addressed to George Rooke, a brother-in-law of Miss Burger, and bearing the signature of Mrs. Mohr. Rooke said he received the letter a short time ago. It read as follows:

"Dear Mr. Rooke:
"Just a line to ask you to tell your sister if she dares to go into my New York home, she will never come out alive. I am giving her fair warning no matter what the outcome may be. I will see it through. I was told about her buying linen at Gliddings (a Providence department store) for Dr. Mohr. I do hope you will try and straighten this matter out and I know you cannot stop her going out to dinner with him. But she will have a sad ending if she keeps on against me. My home is being watched and if I should leave Newport this summer my home will be watched just the same, and should I get word I shall come right on. The world is with me in my sorrow. I am heartbroken.
"Respectfully,
"Elizabeth T. Mohr."

Sensations Follow Rapidly
Developments came with startling rapidity today, and it is believed the case will prove one of the most sensational in the criminal records of this state.

The Providence police arrested Spellman at 6 o'clock this morning, after a statement made by Brown and Heals had implicated him. The police say Spellman confessed he fired three shots at Miss Burger, who was Dr. Mohr's companion in the auto, and that Brown fired the two shots that resulted in Dr. Mohr's death.

Mrs. Mohr was taken to police headquarters and questioned by Police Commissioner Houlton, Chief Robbins of Barrington, Constable Wallace, Inspector Ahearn and Detective Monahan.

She met the officers there and her counsel, Arthur Cushing, with smiles and appeared to be not at all disturbed. She is a small, slightly built woman. She wore a blue suit, white gloves and a modish straw hat, the broad brim of which almost hid her face. However, upon seeing a crowd of photographers that had gathered she sent a messenger for a brown veil, and when this was obtained she veiled her face over her hat in such a way that only the lower part of her face could be seen. She carried a vanity box.

Wife Denies Guilt

Mrs. Mohr steadfastly denied all knowledge of the crime and refused to admit any knowledge of the crime. Brown, Heals and Spellman, were led in to the room where she was sitting and, in her presence, asserted the truth of their alleged confessions.

Heals is said to have stated that Mrs. Mohr offered the money to him if he would stop the auto when the doctor and Miss Burger were in it, at a spot to be chosen. Brown, it is alleged, declares that he was offered the $2000 "to get the doctor right."

Soon afterward Constable Wallace of Barrington drove up in an automobile and asked for the prisoner on the ground that the alleged crime had been committed in Bristol county. The formalities arranged, Mrs. Mohr and her counsel left the station and in their hurry to get away jumped into the wrong automobile. The transfer was quickly made to the constable's machine, and then Mrs. Mohr's aversion to photographers appeared to end suddenly, for she turned toward them while they snapped their cameras.

During the wait in the station, Mrs. Mohr had chatted with Mr. Cushing, who represented her in the separation proceedings brought against her husband. When she heard the request of Constable Wallace for her custody she sprang to her feet and said: "I am ready."

The constable had made formal application for the transfer of the three Negroes, and they were taken in a second automobile to Warren for arraignment.

The alleged confessions came after an all night grilling, in which Brown and Heals were submitted to the third degree. The alleged confessions were made to Chief Inspector O'Neil, and as soon as they had been signed Inspector O'Neil and several other officers went to the home of Mrs. Mohr at 1 Reservoir street, which is just around the corner from the Elmwood avenue home of her husband, and took her to headquarters.

Tells of Murder Offer
Brown at first denied that he had any connection with the affair. He said he passed over the Nyatt road, where the shooting occurred, on a motorcycle, explaining that he was on his way to visit a friend in Riverside. Detectives who went to Riverside to investigate his story returned with Spellman in custody. Spellman said that there was a plot against Dr. Mohr, and when Brown heard of Spellman's admission he made a detailed confession.

According to Brown's story Mrs. Mohr proposed several weeks ago that he kill Dr. Mohr, promising to pay him $5000 nine days after killing was accomplished. He said he asked Spellman to help him out and brought his half-brother up to talk the matter over with Mrs. Mohr. Heals was present at this interview by request of Mrs. Mohr. Brown said, Spellman was to receive $1000 and Brown and Heals $2000 each.

CASE MAY MEAN NEW LAW FOR ENGINEERS

Because of a hearing before the State Board of Arbitration and Conciliation here yesterday in the controversy between an employee of the Frank Jones Brewing company and the company, there is likely to be a petition presented to the next legislature for a law compelling engineers to pass an examination before a license is granted them. The case was heard yesterday afternoon in City Hall, it growing out of a controversy between a Mr. Rand of this city, a member of the Steam and Operating Engineers Union, Local No. 150, employed by the Frank Jones Brewing Company for the past few years in the busy season having failed at reinstatement this spring and a non-union man being engaged in his place.

The union charged the company with having violated its contract with the man, a written agreement being in force that he would be re-employed in preference to a new man when the conditions necessitated that a man be hired. The union asked that Mr. Rand be reinstated in his position, that the non-union man be discharged and that Rand be paid five weeks' wages for the time he lost between that time when the job was open and the new man hired.

The board came to the decision that there had been a breach of contract but the company maintained, through Mr. Woodward, the General Manager, who was representing them, that Rand was incompetent and that they were willing to hire a union man provided that one who was competent be found.

Evidence was introduced to show that there was a written agreement and also that Rand was incompetent. The board did not come to any agreement as to the man's ability, but did find that there had been a breach of contract on the part of the company. Regarding the demands of the union that Rand be reinstated and reimbursed for his lost wages that board decided that if the man was found competent the demands were just and that they should be carried out.

To settle the capability of Rand, the board recommended the appointment of an examining board of engineers, one chosen by the union, one by the company and a third, either chosen by the first two or by the board. If the union will accept these terms the case will be settled.

Blon J. Nutting, President of the State Federation of Labor was present from Concord, and conducted the case for the union. He objected to this arrangement and ruling, stating that it was establishing a bad precedent and might lead to engineers having to pass an examination before being allowed to work as Steam Engineers. The president of the board stated that he thought that such an examination was necessary and that he may submit a petition to the next legislature for the passing of such a law.

The meeting of the board was made necessary by the failure of Labor Commissioner John S. H. Davis of Concord to settle it after it had been submitted to him. The case opened in the city council chamber at 3:00 o'clock and was concluded at 6:00. The members of the board are: Dr. John H. Neal, Portsmouth, president; Francis J. Hurley of Manchester, representing Organized Labor and George A. Tenney of Claremont, representing the employers of the state. Mr. Davis and Mr. Nutting were both present at the hearing and testified.

An extra train composed of sixteen empty Pullmans and passenger cars in charge of Conductor Sanderson passed through this city shortly before nine o'clock on Thursday evening, bound to Portland and eastern points. They will be used to convey the returning summer tourists from the Maine resorts.

TRAIN STRIKES HORSES AND MOWING MACHINE

Driver Was Crossing Railroad at Hampton Falls--Machine Carried Half Mile on Front of Locomotive

The 307 express from this city to Boston Thursday afternoon, struck and killed a valuable pair of horses and a mowing machine on the ground half way between Hampton and Hampton Falls stations. The animals, attached to a mowing machine, and driven by Warren Batchelder, the owner, were returning home after some work on the marshes and are understood to have been passing over the railroad at a point where no regular crossing is established. In the collision the machine was carried a distance of half a mile on the front of the locomotive. The horses met death almost instantly and the fact that Mr. Batchelder was on the ground driving, when the train approached, saved his life. The train was on a down grade and moving at a speed of nearly 60 miles an hour. The locomotive was more or less damaged by the crash, but continued with the train to Boston one hour and a half behind the schedule. The horses are valued at $100 each.

AUTO PARTY HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Driver Runs Machine on Railroad Track to Avoid Crash--ing Into Crossing Gates.

The driver of a large automobile with two women, was in a mixup on the Vaughan street crossing on Thursday afternoon, and although nobody was injured, the party had some exciting experiences.

The machine was coming up Vaughan street on the way to Dover at a very fast speed when the crossing tender started to drop the gates for a switching engine coming from Noble's Island. He got the gates on the Maplewood avenue side in place and was just dropping the gates on the opposite side when the big machine darted by. The driver had no time to bring the machine to a stop and he either had to crash through the gate or turn the auto up or down the tracks of the railroad. When within a few feet of the gate he quickly turned toward the right and the auto ran off the plank of the crossing over the rails and lies toward Green street. In the meantime the crossing tender had signalled the approaching locomotive to stop. The automobile went a considerable distance on the railroad with no damage.

Neither the driver or the women appeared to be much frightened over the affair and the women made no outcry or attempted to get out of their seats while in the extremely dangerous position.

GOV. BOYLE OF NEVADA GIVES HIS PROOF

"I have been an observer of equal suffrage in adjoining Western States where, after a trial of the system covering years, no one seriously considers a return to the old order of things. Men are more numerous than women here and there is no place in the world where women are held in higher respect than in the West. * * * Women themselves have embraced the right to a voice in public affairs in such a manner as to disprove effectively the silly arguments that they could not use this voice without a sacrifice of their womanly qualities."
